ARTICLE 7 :

The participants have to fix at the front of their bike the chip number that they receive from the organizer. The transponder that it contains helps to establish the classifications and to do controls on the course.

ARTICLE 8 :

Each participant has to cross the start line after the official start in order to be listed in the result list. Times are taken at the start/finish line.

ARTICLE 9 :

Following the rules of the ministry for transport, riders that are more than 1 hour behind the leader will be informed by a car of the organizer (broom wagon - "FIN DE SURVEILLANCE DES CARREFOURS"). At that moment, the streets and crossroads will no longer be guarded by the police or race marshals, but the riders can of course finish the race according to the traffic regulations. If they do so, they will appear on the result list.

ARTICLE 10 :

Assistance vehicles of any kind are not allowed on the course. Participants that are assisted by external vehicles will be disqualified.

ARTICLE 11 :

Bicycles with pedaling assistance (electric or other) are not allowed in the race.

ARTICLE 12 : PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

The ACC Contern collects and registers personal data that the participant (rider or volunteer) transmits in an active way at his registration for "La Charly Gaul".

This personal data is used mainly for establishing and editing start lists, result lists and diplomas before, during or after the competition. The data is also used to establish task lists for volunteers as well as statistics on age, gender or geographic origin of the participants, to contact the participant in case of problem and to send him informations related to "La Charly Gaul" or other events organized by the ACC Contern.

By providing his personal data, the participant authorizes the ACC Contern to use them and to transmit them to third parties for the above cited use. In no case is the ACC Contern allowed to provide the data to third parties for other reasons than the ones cited above.

The persons whose personal data is collected by the ACC Contern have the right to obtain informations about the saved data. They can ask a copy of the data or require modification or deletion of it. They can also deny or impose some restrictions to the use of the data.
